

LITTLE/BABY
ABDOL
QUESTIONNAIRE

To Potential Littles/Babies:

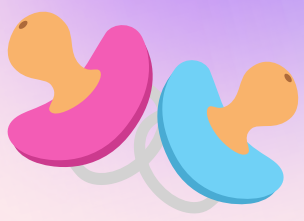

Below are all of the ABDL questions that I have compiled for you as My potential adult baby, little diaper lover. Some of the questions might really make you dig deep into your thoughts, while others are light-hearted or silly.

Aim:

WHY would someone want to agree to be a Mommy to someone they don't know?

WHY would they reach out to find you when they're probably already swamped with people asking them about being mommy all the time? In order to build a relationship of friendship and shared interests... With answered questions, maybe over time, that makes a Mommy – little/baby relationship possible.

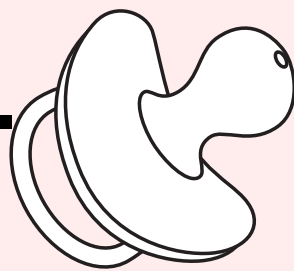

The Questionnaire:

Copy and paste the application into an email, answer the questions and email to

"_____". The

spacing of this questionnaire does not determine the length of your answers. The questionnaire is expected to be returned via e-mail within five(5) days.
